On 07/14/2020 at 1858 hrs I, Officer Morais, was assigned to TR1B when I was dispatched a Harassment complaint. I spoke with the complainant, Kimberly Sullivan (DOB 03/22/1968), via phone call.

Sullivan stated that she called police because her mother's ex-boyfriend, Michael Andrews (DOB 05/22/1961), has been stalking her. Sullivan explained that an [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] so she applied for, and was granted, an ex-parte restraining order where she is the protected person and Andrews is the respondent. Sullivan explained that the restraining order was served today. Since the restraining order was served this morning, Sullivan stated that Andrews had violated it today during an incident.

Sullivan explained that at approximately 1230 hrs today, she was driving in the area of 1249 W Main Street when she passed by Andrews, who was driving the opposite way. Sullivan stated that she and Andrews made eye contact, which caused him to perform a u-turn and follow behind her. Sullivan further stated that Andrews followed her all the way to her home in which he subsequently left thereafter. Sullivan then contacted police.

An NCIC/COLLECT check showed

Such order was ratified today, [Tues 07/14/2020] and expires [07/21/2020]. Such order denied Andrews from having any kind of contact with Sullivan, to stay away from her home, workplace, to remain 100 yards away from her at all times, to not stalk, threaten, or harass her. I then made several attempts in contacting the Judicial Marshal Office on 56 Center Street, but was unable to speak with a Marshall to verify if Andrews has had the restraining order against him served. I then made failed call attempts with Andrews via phone call . I left Andrews a voice mail, informing him that he is a responded in a restraining order where Sullivan is the protected party, and the stipulations that need to be followed. I then had dispatch contact Plymouth Police to send a unit to make contact with Andrew at his address of 88 Main Street fl1, Terryville.

Plymouth Officer Latimer made contact with Andrews. Andrews told him that he was not served his restraining order today by a Judicial Marshal and was only made aware of its existence through my voice mail. Andrews told Officer Latimer that he did see and pass by Sullivan today, but denied any allegations of following her. Andrews stated that he ignored her and went his own way. Andrews was then made aware again of the stipulations in the restraining order made against him.

Sullivan was then informed of Andrews denial of stalking allegations. Sullivan was given a copy of the case number and was informed that a report would be on file. Sullivan was advised to contact police pending future issues with Andrews and that any violation in such restraining order with be enforced. At the time of this report, all evidence was inconclusive in regards to proving Andrews culpability of

On 07/14/2020 Officer Morais investigated a violation of a restraining order complaint filed by Kim Sullivan (DOB 03/22/1968). Kim reported that Michael Andrew (DOB 05/22/1961) violated the order by following her in the car. Officer Morais could not confirm that order was valid as it had been issued on 07/14/2020. On 07/15/2020 this writer confirmed that Andrews had not been served on 07/14/2020. Andrews was advised of the order by the Plymouth PD an that it was hence in effect.

I spoke with Sullivan today and advised her of Officer Morais' findings and that Andrews was not served according to the Ct. Protective Order Registry data base. I advised Sullivan that if there were any additional incidents with Andrews to contact the police.

This case is closed.
